The more than a hundred Campbellites who sat in the rain last Friday night at the Spartan stadium proved that we raise some pretty avid football enthusiasts here.

Household hint from LBen Howard: Baking soda will do a good job of extinguishing a fire. He found this out when grease in the broiler of the oven ignited and almost demolished the stove. LBen says it could have been very serious except for the baking soda which he seems to have grabbed more in desperation than confidence.

Members of the Pocahontas lodge would have been interested in a "Fact or Fiction" radio program last Sunday which had the latest dope on the Indian maid. It's a good thing she is known best by her nickname of Pocahontas (meaning tomboy) for her real name is quite unpronounceable and two or three blocks long.

In a recent "Looking Back" column Mr. and Mrs. Herold Morton were reported gadding around at the Shrine doings in Fresno way back in 1131. Well preserved, eh?

Of special benefit to this area will be the County Health Dewill be the Mobile County Health Department Well Baby Clinic which is still in the planning stage soon. A summer survey showed that many deaths and illnesses occured among the trailer court families and those living in tents. The Clinic will be a mobile one designed to bring preventive care to the children and much needed advice to the mothers since the infant mortality is greatly increasing. It will be staffed by a pediatrician and a nurse.

It's getting to be quite the thing for Campbell organizations to attend the radio program, "Breakfast in the Village" at Lou's Village in Burbank. St. Lucy's Women's Club attended en masse last Monday. They had a hilarious time and took home plenty of prizes. Several mothers took their high school age daughters, among them Mary Alice Grim, Jeanette Gomes, Regina Smith, and Marilyn Ott.

Mrs. Joseph Gomes, with a family of six children, won the orchid (and the two kisses) for having the most children; Mrs. Rose Serpa had a lot of attention since it was a birthday celebration for her; Mrs. Ralph Nelson, responsible for the outing, won a free flying certificate; Mrs. P. M. Yerkovich was awarded a prize for being the one born farthest away (her birthplace: Yugoslovia); and Marilyn Ott was the jackpot winner with the closest answer to the price paid for Alaska. Oh yes, Mrs. Monica Parr, Mrs. Ralph Nelson, and Mrs. H. F. Cousins did a fine job of waiting on tables.

On Wednesday, members of the Footlighters Club were guests on the program, and Marlowe Windbigler almost stole the show from the M. C. This young man, who has a part in the Footlighters Christmas play, seems to have great promise of dramatic ability and he certainly has plenty of poise and charm. Mrs. Ida Price and Archie Keesling were no slouches either. . . . Archie maintained Campbell's high rating for winning the jackpot question with his correct answer as to the date California was admitted to the Union. Said it was easy because it was his birthday—the day and month, not the year!

On their own initiative two high school girls, Doris Smith and Bernell Ellison, are getting up a free dance for Saturday night at the Woman's club. Money left over from the Youth Center project will pay for the use of the club and the dancers will each bring some cookies to go with the punch the two girls intend to

Election Date To Be Set Soon

When the County Supervisors meet on Monday, it is expected that they will give their final decision on the proposed boundaries for the incorporation of Campbell and set the date for the incorporation election. Also at this meeting the number of inhabitants within the proposed area will be announced, as this is required by law before the election can take place.

Next step will be the official nominations of candidates for the seven elective offices to be voted on at the election. These offices are: five city councilmen, a city clerk and city treasurer. Requirements for nominations will undoubtedly be announced by District Attorney Leonard Avilla.

Campbell Taxpayers' Association which has fathered the movement for incorporation, also favored by the Chamber of Commerce, has endorsed six candidates for nomination. They are: Joseph Gomes, Ray Ford, William Harrison, Earl Buck, Ray Fish and William Wolff.

Preliminary expenses preceding the election are being paid for by the association and voluntary contributors.

Lodge Conducts Last Rites For Mrs. Emma C. Main

Ada Rebekah Lodge of Campbell conducted final rites for Mrs. Emma Cordelia Main at the Place Funeral Home in Los Gatos last Saturday morning. Their departed member died in San Jose Nov. 20.

Mrs. Main, who died just two weeks after her 86th birthday, was an early Santa Clara Valley pioneer who arrived here via the Panama Isthmust from Pennsylvania, at the age of three. Her family settled on 160 acres of land where Almaden and the Los Gatos-San Jose Road intersect. Her late husband, Monroe James Main, was one of the early settlers in Los Gatos, where he built many buildings and homes, many of which are still standing. Mrs. Main's father, William Haines Franklin, was the fifth descendant of Benjamin Franklin.

Until 1941 Mrs. Main made her home in the Union district where she was a member of the We and Our Neighbors Club. Since 1941 she has made her home in San Jose with her son, Lloyd. In addition to him, she leaves two other sons, Emory G., also of San Jose, and William H. of Oakland.

The Rev. B. F. Stump officiated at the rites which were followed by interment in the Los Gatos cemetery.

Turkey Shoot Planned

Plans for the Marine Corps League turkey shoot are in their final stages, according to Edwin Lee, committee member. The Marine Corps League is an organization of Marines and ex-Marines.

The affair is planned for Sunday, Dec. 15, from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m. at the Campbell Rod and Gun Club which is just off the San Jose-Los Gatos Highway. Proceeds will go to the Marine Corps Rehabilitation and Hospital fund.

Serving on the committee which is making arrangements are Miss Jeanette Saffo and William Miller, both of San Jose; and Mrs. Alice Ledum and Edwin Lee of Campbell.

Guns will be furnished and everyone interested is invited to attend.

Campbell Student Takes Livestock Show Honors

Members of the vocational agriculture classes of Campbell Union High Schol and their instructor journeyed to San Francisco last week to visit the Grand National Livestock Exposition. On display there were purebred draft, hartness, and saddle horses, beef cattle, sheep, swine, and dairy cattle from the western half of the United States.

Three of the huge tents housing the s wine, dairy cattle, and beef cattle had collapsed in the wind and rain storm. As a result, the Future Farmers were treated to the unusual sight of prize-winning Herefords and Holsteins calmly showing their cuds in the $3.50 box seats in the horse show arena. However, all of the livestock were still on display.

Particular interest was shown in the purebred Holstein entries of two alumni of Campbell High, Leo and Sanford Hedegard of Modesto. The boys witnessed the judging of the dairy cattle and beef cattle and the auction of the prizewinning fat stock. They saw the Grand Champion Hereford steer weighing 1050 pounds sell for $5 per lb. The grand champion lamb, a Southdown wether, sold for $11.75 per lb., while the leading livestock buyers bid up to $1.70 per lb. for the grand champion barrow, a Hampshire.

Driving rain did not dampen the students' spirits and all reported an interesting and educational trip. Mr. J. A. Rogers chauffered the group to the exposition.

Lawrence Groteguth, member of the Campbell Future Farmer Chapter, was one of the successful exhibitors at the Grand National Livestock Exposition this week. The two Duroc-Jersey hogs which he exhibited were prize-winners in the swine show.

His senior yearling boar took second place, beaten in this class only by the grand champion Duroc-Jersey boar of the show. The senior gilt ran into some tough competition and placed sixth, but still among the top animals in her class. Groteguth was competing in this show against leading hog breeder from all over the West.

Although his stock was supposed to remain up in San Francisco until Nov. 24, the closing date of the Cow Palace show, he returned home on Tuesday as the tent housing the swine show was blown down by the storms. C. C. Lehman, of the Twin Oaks Berkshire Farm, aided by bringing the animals to San Jose in spite of a driving rain.

Lawrence, a senior in the local high school and holder of the State Farmer degree in the Future Farmers of America, is rapidly establishing a reputation as a breeder of quality purebred swine. Last fall he took several championships in both the junior and open divisions of the County Fair. He has had many sales prospects as a result of his high quality breeding stock and showmanship.

TAKES SECOND PLACE

Mrs. Virginia Ammon's six months old Dalmatian took second place at the Sun-Maid Kennel Show in Fresno last Sunday. This is Mrs. Ammon's first entry from her Kal Dal Kennels here.

Every week a name will be drawn from our list of new subscribers and printed in the classified ad column. The person whose name appears there may receive two free passes to the Campbell Theater by calling at the Press Office. Look and see if your name is there!

Ray Fishes Take Over What Not

Ray Fish has purchased Miss Jane Parr's and Mrs. Monica Parr's interest in The What Not, Campbell's distinctive gift shop and lending library, and he and his wife, the former Martha Parr, will take over the shop tomorrow.

The business was started six years ago by the two sisters, Jane and Martha, and has in that time attracted wide interest in the community and surrounding districts. Since her marriage, Mrs. Fish has retired from the business, but she and her husband will both take an active part now. Mr. Fish, who is well known in Campbell, has been in the tile contracting business since 1930.

Miss Jane Parr leaves from Mills Field on Sunday for Guatemala, where she will make her future home. On her arrival she will be the guest of two former Campbellites, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Becker.

On Wednesday, Dec. 11, Mr. and Mrs. Fish will hold the annual What Not birthday tea which has become a pleasant tradition here.

New Beauty Shop To Open Tuesday

Campbell will soon have a new beauty shop when two young Campbell women will open the Palm Beauty Room on Tuesday, December 3rd.

Owners and operators of the new business will be Mrs. Edith Anderson and Mrs. Alma Fanning, both experienced beauty operators. The shop will be located in Mrs. Anderson's home at 394 Campbell Ave. Busy putting the finishing touches on the shop and selecting equipment, the prospective partners still find time to make frequent trips to San Francisco, where they have been brushing up on the latest in coiffures and beauty treatments of all kinds.

Both Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Fanning are charter members of the Pocahontas lodge and have been Campbell residents for some time.

TAXPAYERS ASSOCIATION PLANS CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS

Upset by the Chamber of Commerce decision to plan no Christmas decorations for the town due to lack of funds, Ray Gilpatrick, president of the Campbell Taxpayers' Association, and George Arlidge, met with a committee of members who decided to undertake the project.

The assistance of Ne-Tops Council, Degree of Pocahontas, has been promised, and the Taxpayers' committe hope that other groups and private citizens will also help.

Arlidge has designed a special decoration which will be used throughout the town.

FOOTLIGHTERS CONVERTING BARN TO CLUB ROOM

The process of converting the loft of the barn, donated to the Footlighters by Mrs. E. C. Price, into a club room and "little theater" is proceeding under the direction of Mr. Archie Keesling and a committee of nail-pounders from the local drama club.

Mr. Keesling and his committee, consisting of Gene Hodges, LBen Howard, Ethan Lanphear, Dean Chamberlin, and Bud Levenberg launched the project last Sunday. The walls are being sided and decorated, and a small stage will be erected.

The Footlighters also report very satisfactory progress on the one-act play, "I Don't Believe in Christmas", which will be presented before various local organizations as a part of their Christmas programs.

Campbell Downed By Los Gatos In Final Game

By Dudley Herschbach

The Los Gatos varsity football team had plenty to be thankful for this Thanksgiving Day when they downed their traditional opponents, the Campbell Buccaneers, at Campbell field by a score of 20-6, thereby winning a tie for the S.C. V.A.L. championship with Mt. View.

Led by graduating seniors in the key positions, both teams were out to win and the game was much closer than the score indicates. The Los Gatos Cats are coached by Fred Canrinus. Herb Hudson trains the Bucs.

Captains Gouley (Campbell) and Sanchez (Los Gatos) tossed the game-starting coin and Los Gatos elected to receive. Raphel, Los Gatos fullback, returned the kick-off to the Los Gatos 40 and the game was under way.

Both teams did their best in the first quarter but neither really threatened to score and the quarter ended with the Bucs on the Los Gatos 32-yard line.

The Bucs gave up the ball on downs after driving to the Cats 20. Los Gatos was unable to get out of her own territory but punted deep into the Buc section. The Bucs fumbled later on their 46-yard line and Los Gatos recovered.

The Cats, unable to gain, punted but Gouley fumbled and Los Gatos recovered again on Campbells 17. Los Gatos smashed on and what should have been a touchdown pass was spoiled when the receiver hit the goal post.

But the Cats went over anyway with powerful Raphel carrying the ball for the touchdown. A pass try for the extra point was no good and the Cats led 6-0.

Zeppa, Campbell's fullback, took the kick-off and streaked back to his 47-yard line. The Bucs smashed on with Kuykendall, Gouley, and Gleed carrying and passing until a Gleed-Gazay pass connected and Gazay galloped over for the score. Campbells kick for point was wide and a minute later the half ended with a 6-6 score.

The Bucs slowed down in the second half and the power-packed Cat eleven overpowered them in the fourth quarter with two touchdowns and two running conversions.

Ward, Raphel, and Callahan divided the Cat touchdowns and with Smith sparked the Los Gatos team.

Almost all Campbells outstanding men were injured at one time or another during the game and were: George Gleed, Wayne Buck Captain Dick Gouley, Mel and Ievi Estrada, Jay Kuykendall, Anthony Zeppa, and R. Gazay. Wayne Buck was injured early in the game and so was unable to play most of it.

Others playing fine ball for the Bucs were Dan Hill, Ed Bersano, Vic Corsiglia, C. Cutting, R. Russo and C. Rizzuto.

Ed. Note: This story was written by Dudley Herschbach as a project toward receiving the Scout Merit Badge for Journalism.

Total Announced For Chest Drive

Campbell fell only $80 below its quota of $4072 for the Community Chest Drive, according to Mrs. H. F. Cousins, treasurer of the Community Council. She totaled up all donations yesterday to reach a grand total of $3992.

Additional totals may still be received, but even if they are not, drive officials fetel that the local campaign should be ended.

According to Martin Walsh, director of the drive, large contributions from several large concerns, which were made last year and preceding years, were withheld this year.

Chamber Appoints Nominating Committee

At last week's Chamber of Commerce meeting President Walter Silberbauer appointed a nominating committee of three who will make their recommendations at the December meeting. Serving on the committee are Herbert Shadle, George Arlidge and Leslie Wheeler.

Among the matters discussed at the meeting were the shortage of water in the county; the necessity of abandoning any plans for Christmas decorations for the town due to lack of funds; and the possibility of placing garbage disposal cans on Campbell Ave. to assist in keeping the streets and sidewalks cleaner. This was decided against because of the possibility of damage suits brought by anyone who might bump into the receptacles.

SAN JOSE STATE STUDENTS ON RADIO PROGRAM

San Jose State College went on the air this week, with two programs, which will be broadcast each week by the city's two local radio stations KSJO and KLOK.

Beginning Monday, Nov. 25, at 4:00 p. m., State College students took the air over station KSJO with a varied program of college news, interviews with student and faculty personalities and dramatic skits illustrating happenings on the State College campus.

The purpose of this program is to keep the community informed about the activities and functions of its State College. The scripts will be written, produced and performed by students who belong to the newly organized Radio Guild.

The second program, "Short Story Playhouse", will be broadcast each Wednesday at 1:30 p. m. over Station KLOK. The great short stories of the world will be dramatized with State College students enacting the roles of famous literary personalities.

Student activities in radio are supervised by Dr. Edgar E. Willis of the Speech and Drama faculty who came to San Jose State College this year from Wayne University in Detroit.

Dr. Willis has written and produced many programs for Detroit radio stations including "History in the Making" over WJR, and "Occupations on Parade" over WJBKK. Willis came to California in June to lecture on radio writing and speaking at the NBC University Radio Institute conducted at Stanford.

Death Takes Mrs. Lila Strong

After an illness of a few months, Mrs. Lila Strong passed away at her Campbell home last Saturday. A resident of the community for most of her life, she leaves a host of friends.

Mrs. Strong was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Wade, early settlers of the community. Many Campbell people remember her wedding to J. B. Strong in May of 1900, at the Methodist Church. The ceremony, a double one in which her brother also was married, was one of the largest ever held here with more than 400 guests invited. Mrs. Calvin Bohnett and Mrs. Fred Rost were flower girls and Mrs. Maudine Putnam Saunders of San Jose was ring bearer.

During the war years Mrs. Strong climaxed a busy and useful life by devoting unlimited time to the work of the Red Cross. She was a member of the Country Woman's Club and the Happy Hour Club.

Surviving Mrs. Strong are her husband; a daughter, Mrs. Lucille Hoerler of San Jose; a son, Everett Strong, also of San Jose; a sister, Mrs. Florence Cottle of San Jose; and two brothers, Herbert and Ben Wade, of Oakland. She also left four grandchildren.

Final rites were held on Monday afternoon at the Rutherford Funeral Home with interment at Oak Hill Memorial Park. Mrs. J. W. Knowles, of the Christian Science Church, officiated at the services, and pallbearers were George Wilson, Richard Huntwork, Don Hoerler, Paul Houdashelt, Elmer Hoerler and H. J. Ullyot.

COMMITTEE CONCERNED WITH DELINQUENCY

In an effort to combat the juvenile delinquency problem in Campbell, Mrs. Ray Wood, chairman of the motion picture section of the American Legion Auxiliary, has organized a group of leading citizens representing PTA, church and educational groups.

The purpose of this committee is to curb the rising tide of delinquency which is spreading throughout the nation.

Conferences have been held with the local theater management. Mr. Verne Balcon, local manager, has pledged the active cooperation of himself and his staff to make every effort to be vigilant.

STUDENT TO ANSWER FOR MANSLAUGHTER

Raymond McVea, 19, Campbell High School student, was held to answer to Superior Court by Acting Police Judge Forrest L Bentzien, on a charge of manslaughter arising from the death of William P. O'Neal, 67, Montgomery Hotel clerk, who was struck by McVea's car at First and Clayton Sts., in San Jose, on Nov. 10.

McVea was prosecuted by Asst. Dist. Atty. A. Andreuccetti, while defense attorney is Elmer Jensen.

HIGHWAY FUNDS DISBURSED

Santa Clara County received $583,503 in State highway funds during the year ending June 30, 1946, a decrease of 6.1 per cent from the 0621,214 of State funds received during 1941-42, California Taxpayers' Association said today, making public its study of State apportionments of highway funds to California counties. For 1939-40, the association said, State highway funds apportioned to this county totaled $560,723. Apportionment for 1943-44 totaled $462,-862.

"Cities," the association said, also share in State highway revenues."

Most of us have fine theories and high ideals concerning our political and civic responsibilities but too often we are apt to let "the other fellow" do it. Campbell residents will soon have an opportunity to exercise their privileges and duties by nominating men for office in the event of incorporation.

These men must be nominated before the election and if each and every one of us gives serious thought to the matter and assume the responsibility of taking part in the nominations we can give an important impetus to city government if the voters decide in favor of incorporation.

We all know our neighbors—who among them can do their full share of the work to be done, who among them can be tactful and diplomatic under difficult circumstances, who among them can think a problem through seeing both sides as he goes. The men nominated will not be little known politicians but our next door neighbors. The Press hopes that every citizen will take, not a passive, but an active interest in seeing that capable, efficient men are nominated for it will be the responsibility of all of us.

Washington MERRY-GO-ROUND

DREW PEARSON

PROSPECTIVE POLICY

WASHINGTON—With Republican leaders gathering in the capital to begin organizing their own G.O.P.-ruled Congress for the first time in 16 years, here is a merry-go-round view of what the country can expect during the next two years:

FOREIGN POLICY — On the surface there will be no outward change. Later, however, important changes will become apparent. The British already are worried over our swing to the right.

BUDGET — The three largest expenditures of government are for army-navy, veterans and service on national debt. These can't be pruned—unless the Republicans want to cut down the army and navy, which they are not likely to do. Easiest pruning job, therefore, is on foreign loans and relief. UNRRA will be the first to go. A 200 million dollar loan to Italy, planned by Truman, will be ditched next. Other loans to European and Latin American countries will be axed.

This is where one change in foreign policy comes in. The Italian loan was planned in order to help struggling Italian democracy and prevent Italy's swing to Russian Communism. Midwest Republicans, many of them still privately isolationist, will veto this.

However, the end of several wartime expenditures such as price subsidies and service separation payments should permit balancing the budget.

TAXES—Despite current talk of tax relief for small wage earners, there will be only minor tax cuts. One of two things will happen. Either expenditures will be such as to forbid major tax reduction. Or a cut will be made in the lower brackets, after which G.O.P. congressmen, pressured by higher-bracket groups, won't be able to resist the temptation to get aboard the gravy train.: If they add tax reduction for the higher brackets, it means that Truman will veto the bill.

TARIFS — Midwest Republicans would like to go back to the old Hoover high tariffs. Some of the eastern Republicans from manufacturing regions will go along with them. If they get going in earnest, however, there will be a stalemate. Truman will veto.

LABOR—One Republican faction favors immediate and outright repeal of the entire Wagner act. However, they know this would bring a veto and that the veto probably would be sustained. Another G.O.P. group wants to avoid antagoniing labor. Certain AFL leaders, especially John L. Lewis and Bill Hutchinson, Carpenters' boss, helped them win the election, and they want to keep labor happy for 1948. Therefore, the followig compromise is probable:

1. The Case bill will be passed once again, and this time will become law. Even if Truman vetoes, which is doubtful, southern Democrats and the strong G.O.P. majority will be able to override the White House.

2. Senator Ball's bill, putting labor unions under the anti-trust laws, also will be adopted.

IMMIGRATION — Republicans are traditionally hostile to immigration and minority groups, and the House immigration committee now is inherited by Rep. Noah Mason of Illinois, well-known witch-hunter. Displaced persons in Europe will get little comfort from Mason. A revived and stronger "Dies committee" can be expected—probably in both houses of Congress.

AGRICULTURE — No major change in the farm program is in prospect for the next two years. However, you will hear the same cry for parity prices on farm products. Co-ordination of all farm agencies will be demanded.

ECONOMIC OUTLOOK—Prices generally will rise during the next six months, although not so rapidly, and with some commodities such as food and textiles dropping in the winter. Food prices should slump after the Argentine and Australian crops are harvested in February. Clothing and furniture prices should come down soon, certainly after Christmas. Autos will remain scarce for some time.

Rent control will be dumped within about six months, although the Republicans will be too smart to repeal it outright. They will pass the buck back to the individual states, which will mean the virtual end of rent controls, since state legislatures are notoriously susceptible to real estate lobbies.

That, in brief, is the future G.O.P. congressional picture.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

It is now becoming more certain that Campbell will be incorporated. It has taken more than a quarter of a century to secure present results, and undoubtedly the praise must be given to the Campbell Taxpayers' Association.

There are still a few people who have an idea that it will mean much higher taxes. If they would only attend the public meetings they would know they are entirely wrong. Certainly it must cost some money. but where can you get something for nothing? It will be more than worth the expense, for many taxes which are at present paid to the County are not spent for the benefit of Campbell, but for the County. Under incorporation this will be altered. One of the greatest advantages will be adequate police protection. If incorporated, we shall be protected from the undesirable element which menaces Campbell, and our streets will be safe for women and children. Traffic regulations will clear our streets, and we shall be able to do our shopping in Campbell without discomfort in the parking district. I for one shall vote for incorporation, and I advise others to do the same. Then we can be sure of new industries, new and better stores, better and safer streets, and numerous other improvements.

Yours truly,
FRANK MARTORANO.

Grammar School PTA Meets

A record all-time high membership of about 600 was reported at the recent regular meeting of the Campbell Grammar PTA unit by Mrs. Richard Gordon, membership chairman. This included the good news of 110 father members.

Since the members, at a previous meeting, had voted to raise the dues to $1.00, Mrs. Robert Ries was able to report a most gratifying sum in the treasury for necessary school projects.

The membership authorized a committee to spend $50.00 for new kindergarten play equipment.

Another committee was authorized to purchase $100 worth of permanent additions to the audio-visual library of the school.

Mrs. Marien Garrett spoke briefly of the well baby clinic and asked for volunteers for the training course for those assisting in the work.

An outstanding program was arranged by the school principal, Mr. William Henley, to carry out the theme of the month, "Understanding Our Schools—Methods of Teaching."

Basket Dinner and Singing At Church

Last Sunday the Church of Christ had a basket lunch at noon after the morning service, which was followed by singing in the afternoon. The library auditorium was full for the singing and a large group was there for the dinner. Present were visitors from Watsonville, Redwood City, San Jose, and other communities. An especially large group from the San Jose Church of Christ attended.

Floyd Hamilton, the new minister of the Campbell church, was in charge of the program. He extends a cordial invitation to all Campbell visitors to attend services.

The Coy Muse

My room was swept and garnished,
Pencils sharp and paper fair;
All things were set for my writing
As I sat in my easy chair.

I would write a beautiful poem,
'Twould thrill the heart of the earth—
But there came no inspiration,
Not a tho't of any worth.

I pushed the blank pad from me,
Failure held me by the hand;
I would go and cook a dinner,
For my hungry little band.

I laid and lighted the fire,
I brewed and baked and boiled,
And I sang a joyous ballad,
I was happy as I toiled.

Lo! There came my inspiration,
I scarce had time to think,
Catching up some butcher paper,
I wrote my song upon the sink.

Serve Leftovers With an Eye to Color

GLAMORIZING LEFTOVERS

"Wouldn't it be wonderful if we never had to bother with leftovers." I heard a homemaker say recently. Well, leftovers need not be the problem which many women regard them, for they can really be made interesting. As a matter of fact, many of my friends welcome dinners made with leftovers because they take so little time to prepare.

Never let the leftover problem get out of hand is my first bit of advice, however, for then food will spoil and will have to be thrown out. Plan in advance what will be leftover and include it in the menu. This is easy to do with roasts and even vegetables.

It's an excellent idea to check the refrigerator systematically every day so that no bit of food escapes notice. Combine several vegetables in one jar and toss them into a salad. Or, plan to cream them and serve with bacon on toast for lunch. After a bit of practice you will learn to think of food in this way and there will be no "leftover problem."

Change the food to some extent when it is served a second or a third time, and it will become a sort of fascinating game to see just how much can be done with leftovers. Use a variety of seasonings and watch the family take an interest in the food.

Here are several suggestions on what to do with fowl:

Chicken Chow Mein
(Serves 6)

2 cups cooked chicken
2 tablespoons fat
2 cups thinly sliced celery
1½ cups sliced, peeled onions
1/8 teaspoon pepper
1 No. 2 can mixed vegetables, Chinese style
¼ ounce can mushrooms
2 tablespoons cornstarch
3 tablespons soy sauce
Scallions
1 small can fried noodles

Brown chicken slightly in fat. Add celery, onions and pepper. Add chicken broth (about 2 cups) and cook covered until vegetables are tender. Add drained Chinese vegetables and mushrooms and heat to boiling. Mix cornstarch with soy sauce and add to mixture. Stir this mixture and cook until thickened. Arrange vegetable dish garnished with sliced scallions and pour mixture over them. Serve with fried noodles.

Turkey Pie
(Serves 6)

3 tablespoons fat
4 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
2 cups milk
2 cups hot mashed potatoes
Leftover roast turkey, sliced
1 cup cooked, sliced carrots
1 cup cooked or canned peas, drained

Melt fat, add flour and blend in salt and pepper. Add milk gradually while stirring and cook until mixture thickens. Spread mashed potatoes in a layer in a buttered baking dish and cover with a layer of turkey slices. Add carrots and peas to sauce and pour over turkey. Place in a broiler and broil until the top is golden brown. Serve at once.

Chicken Casserole
(Serves 6)

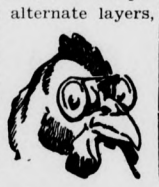
2 cups chicken gravy, may be leftover
4 strips bacon

Arrange chicken and sweet potatoes, sliced in alternate layers, in a buttered baking dish. Pour gravy over all and top with bacon strips. Bake uncovered in a moderately hot (400-degree) oven for 30 minutes.



Slivered cheddar cheese may be used on top of the above casserole in place of the bacon, if desired.

Vegetable Souffle
(Serves 6)

1 cup cooked leftover vegetables
1 cup thick white sauce
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 tablespoons minced onion
½ teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper
½ teaspoon worcestershire sauce
4 eggs, separated
¼ teaspon cream of tartar

Press vegetables through a sieve or chop fine before using. Combine them with white sauce and seasonings. Add well-beaten egg yolks. Cool. Fold in beaten whites mixed with cream of tartar before beating. Turn into a greased casserole and bake in a moderate (325-degree) oven for 1 hour. Serve at once.

Orange Sweet Potatoes
(Serves 4 to 6)

6 cooked sweet potatoes
1 cup orange juice

HOW AMERICA READS HER BIBLE

An article published in August of 1943 gives the following facts concernig how America reads her Bible. These facts were obtained by a Gallup poll taken from coast to coast. Here are some of them: 10 in every 100 persons interviewed said they read the Bible every day. 41 out of every 100 frankly admitted they had not looked into the Bible for the past year. Translated in terms of the adult population this means that 8.5 million people said they read the Bible daily, and about 35 million said they had not read it in the past year. More than twice as many women as men read the Bible daily, and more men than women had not looked into the Bible in the past year.

There are indications that these percentages and ratios have not materially changed within the past 3 years. There is therefore a great need for many millions more people to read the Bible and to do so daily. The New Testament approves such daily reading and study of the Scriptures as shown in the following passage: "These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the Scriptures daily, whether those things were so." (Acts 17:11)

Annual Christmas Festival Announced

Youthful singers from Campbell Union High School will once more participate in the annual Yuletide A Capella Choir Festival sponsored by the San Jose High School. The affair will be held in the San Jose Civic Auditorium on Dec. 6 at 8 p. m. and will be the 13th successive festival.

More than 500 singers from nine Northern California high schools will join in singing traditional Christmas music. The evening session which follows an all-day festival for a capella choirs will be free of charge to the public.

Taking part will be choirs from Gilroy, Salinas, Los Gatos, Campbell, Palo Alto, Mission San Francisco, San Jose, Abraham Lincoln and Notre Dame High School.

Mrs. William Norton, the former Miss Eleanor Short, who was a supervisor of music education in San Jose city schools, originated the Christmas festival. She is reported suffering from injuries received in an automobile accident in the East at the present time.

Roy Freeburg, music dirctor at San Francisco State College, will direct the massed choir singing, and guest critics will be Miss Sylvia Garrison of the Oakland city schools and William Erlandson of the San Jose State College music faculty. Miss Diana Gard, director of the San Jose High School a capella choir is in charge of the festival.

Activities will begin at noon and will include a dance to the music of the Mission High School band, and a specialty program by the choirs for the other singers only from 7 to 8 in the Montgomery Theater.

Campbell Court Notes

By JUDGE BLAINE

A young man of 20 was charged with these several motor vehicle violations: 250-a, no operator's license; 671, no horn; 673, no muffler; 676-c, no windshield wiper; 6777, defective windshield glass; 674, no rear view mirror; 645, not equipped with proper lamps.

On top of all the defendant had been clocked at 15 miles an hour in a 25 mile zone. When the judge noted the last item he inquired, "What was your idea, young man, in blocking traffic in Campbell by this virtual double parking in slow motion?"

"Honest, Judge, the old rattletrap wouldn't go any faster."

"Then what about no operator's license? And what about all these defects?"

"I didn't have an operator's license because I'd just bought the old thing. I won't need a license in the future because I'm going to remedy all those defects and sell. I figure that I'll lose about $150 on the deal."

The young man was given 30 days to get the parts. Back at the end of the 30 days he reported, "Judge, I can't find the needed parts. I don't know when I'm going to be able to find them."

"How much more time do you want?"

"Judge, I just can't tell anything about it. I'd better pay a fine and take as much time as it takes."

"Will five dollars break your heart?"

"It won't break my heart but it may break my purse." He brought out three dollar bills, three halves, three quarters. Two-bits to go. "I'm afraid I can't quite make it. Wait . . ." He dug down and brought up three nickles. "That's all I've got. No, wait . . ."He dug deeper yet and fished out ten pennies. "I guess that's five dollars."

'It breaks my heart to take it, but here's your receipt."

'Thanks, Judge, for your patience. I'll live and learn. Good

"Thats the way we all have to do. Good by."

Air Force Seeks Names Of Vets

A nation-wide drive to list the names and present addresses of the 2,300,000 veterans of the Army Air Forces will be launched today in Campbell.

Cards, which former officers, men and women of the AAF are being asked to fill out and forward to General Carl Spaatz, AAF commander, will be available at local post offices and other points of distribution and from units of the Civil Air Patrol and Boy Scouts of America.

The drive will close Sunday, Dec. 1.

Purpose of the campaign, according to General Spaatz, is to bring up to date the Air Force roster of veterans at the request of the Air Defense Command, and to provide a means of quick communication between AAF headquarters nad wartime personnel.

In asking Air Force veterans to obtain cards, fill them out and forward them to AAF headquarters, General Spaatz declared he hopes by this means to make it possible for former AAF members "to know the activities in which the Air Forces are now participating, the needs to carry out our programs in research and development, and our aims for the Air Reserve and Air National Guard."

His message to former members added that "we want you to feel that you are still on the team."

The Searchlight

A long, white,
finger of light.
Probing a shaft
in the blackness of night.

Whirling around,
silently round.
Senseless to we who remain on the ground.

But all through the night
ceaselessly bright.
It warns all the pilots
who come within sight.

There is danger at left,
so keep to the right.
The right, the right,
so keep to the right.

SCOUTS PLAN DECEMBER COURT OF HONOR

By Dudley Herschbach
Scout Reporter

Moreland Scout Troop 36 is busy preparing for the semi-annual, Dec. 12, Court of Honor, to be held in the Campbell High School auditorium. The purpose of the Court of Honor is to give the Scouts recognition for the badges they have earned and is a public ceremony.

Also awaiting the event are the two other Campbell district troops: Troops 31 and 34.

The Moreland troop has a chance to win the Court of Honor attendance banner for the fourth consecutive time. (The banner is given to the troop having the greatest percentage of parents and friends present.) If a troop wins the banner three consecutive times it becomes their permanent property. Troop 36 has already won one banner and will do her best to win again.

The Moreland Scouts are working hard to complete their advancement requirements and will boast the troop's first Eagle Scout. (Guess who?)

Scouts of the Campbell district will welcome the presence and interest of their parents and friends.

GAS HEAT FOR WINTER COMFORT

Taking it easy with house heating is one of the big reasons why life is better in California. No work and trouble tending a fire, no muss and fuss or ordering of fuel and worrying about price or delivery.

With gas heating you can relax and enjoy comfortable, trouble-free, uniform heat—hour after hour, day after day. And yet with all this luxurious convenience gas heating is by no means costly. On the contrary, it is the most economical fuel to use. If you are planning to remodel or build a home insist on a modern, adequate gas-fired heating system for the entire house.

Of special interest because of its local setting will be the main feature at the Campbell Theater this weekend.

In flashback, with occasional narration by Charles Ruggles, "Gallant Journey" unfolds the dramatic story of what is offered as man's first wing controlled flight. Interesting in treatment and off-the-beaten in much of its content, this attraction easily makes the grade as decidedly worthwhile.

The central figure is John J. Montgomery who, by this account, constructed the first glider plane and successfully launched it in California as far removed as 1883. The screenplay, written by Byron Morgan and William A. Wellman, thereafter tells of the hardships which beset Montgomery on his way; how his immediate circle was skeptical—except for Janet Blair who spurs him on through the dark moments and eventually marries him.

There are many branches off the main story stem: How the Jesuits at Santa Clara University lend a helping and understanding hand; how an earthquake happens along to destroy the latest plane model; how the gold-sorting machine, developed and then neglected, pulls Montgomery (Glenn Ford) out of financial trouble only to return him to it by the need to defend his invention in a lawsuit.

Wellman, who also produced and directed "Gallant Journey" as another in his lengthening series of productions dealing with the various chapters in American aviation history, obviously was at home here. His attention to technical detail and his appreciation for flight sequences never heretofore touched upon insofar as this reviewer is aware, are on hand in a variety of directions. Being a story of matters largely off the ground, photography of necessity was important here. Burnett Guffey, as head of the camera staff with George B. Meehan Jr., and Elmer Dyer associated, more than meet the quota with magnificent skyscapes that remove the film from the earthbound.

Not alone on the side of aviation is Wellman's direction effective. His handling of his principal characters is sympathetic and draws from them first-rate performances, led off by Ford as the combined dreamer and doer.

YOUNG CHINESE PIANISTS TO ENTERTAIN OAK KNOLL FATHERS

Three Chinese children, 8, 10, and 12 years old, who learned to play the piano while they and their parents suffered under Japanese oppression in Shanghai, will arrive in San Francisco from China aboard the Navy transport USS General H. W. Butner Friday.

The first concert in this country for George Wei, youngest of the thre, and his sisters, Madeline and Sophie, will be given Sunday evening for patients of Oakland Naval Hospital. Followig that performance, the trio with their mother, Mrs. Frances Wei, and their social secretary, Miss Margaret Pure, start on the "Childrens' Musical Good Will Mission of China", making appearances in several cities throughout the United States. Climax of the tour will occur Christmas week, when the three play for President Harry Truman. Proceeds from the tour will go to aid Chinese war orphans.

The program which the young pianists will play at the Naval Hospital includes "Invitation to the Dance", by von Weber; "Valtz", by Schumann; "Concerto for Two Pianos" by Hayden; "Moonlight Sonata" by Beethoven; and "March Militaire" by Schubert. In addition, George will play two of his own compositions, "To My Mother", and "Victory Day".

WE TRUST EVERYONE HAD A NICE THANKSGIVING AND NOW WE ARE LOOKING FORWARD TO THE CHRISTMAS SEASON.

STARTED CAPONS . . . Completely Brooded

MEAT FIT FOR A KING — Capons are profitable. They are by far the highest priced poultry on the market to grow. They are very quiet to work with and so require a minimum of care. The backyard poultryman is now raising capons for his own use. What a delicious meal one makes. They just can't be beat!
